4th Annual MIAMI SPICE RESTAURANT MONTH August & September 2005

Celebrate the city's passion for food and life by enjoying special dinner and/or lunch menus at reduced rates at more than 50 of Miami's finest restaurants.

The Greater Miami Convention & Visitors Bureau (GMCVB) is bringing back Miami Spice Restaurant Month for its fourth consecutive year this August and September, with one low price for lunch and dinner at Miami's most exclusive restaurants. Because of its wild popularity in years past it is now offered for two months at most participating restaurants.

Miami Spice Restaurant Month presented by Campo Viejo is a much-anticipated annual fine dining program encompassing specially priced lunches and dinners at some of the finest restaurants in town.

During Miami Spice Restaurant Month, more than 50 top restaurants and chefs will offer incredible three-course dinners for $30.05 (excluding tax and gratuities). Diners last year had the rare opportunity to sample full-course dinners at chic culinary hotspots such as: Abbey Dining Room, Acqua at the Four Seasons, Americana at The Ritz-Carlton South Beach, Azul, Baleen, Bernie's Steak House, The Biscayne Bistro, BleuView at Fontainebleau Hotel, Blue Door, The Capital Grille, Carmen the Restaurant, Chef Allen's, China Grill, Chispa, Christy's, Dilido Beach Club,

Dragon, Duo Restaurant, Emeril's, Escopazzo, The Forge, Grass, Isabela's at JW Marriott, Metro Kitchen + Bar, Norman's, North 110, Novecento, Ola Miami, Ortanique on the Mile, Pacific Time, Perricone's, The Prime Grill, Shula's Steak House, SushiSamba Dromo, Tamara at The National Hotel, Tuscan Steak, and 1200 at the Biltmore, as well as dozens of other restaurants throughout the county.

Many restaurants will also offer lunch at $20.05 (excluding tax and gratuities). Each restaurant will include an appetizer, entrée and dessert as part of the fixed price, which averages a 25-60 percent discount from the regular value.
